CHAPTER 7 BANKRUPTCY CASE NO. 07-72008

The only asset administered in this case was real estate located near Friendship, Wisconsin upon which sat two older mobile homes. The property was scheduled as having a value of $60,400.00. This value, however, was based solely on a tax assessment. The Trustee had a market analysis completed for the property and determined it revealed the property was worth substantially less than the value indicated by the tax assessment. The mobile homes on the property were very old and not in very good condition. The Trustee took the necessary steps to winterize the property. The Trustee offered to sell the real estate back to the Debtors or their family, but the Debtors were unable to purchase the property. The Trustee, therefore, listed the property for sale with a realtor pursuant to Court Order. The property was marketed through a multiple listing service. The property was sold pursuant to a Court Order entered on February 20, 2008 for the sum of $32,500.00 in "as is" condition.

The Trustee retained the services of an accountant to file the necessary income tax returns for the bankruptcy estate. The Trustee has reviewed the claims on file and has found no basis for objection.
